

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION of CIVIL AVIATION CHAPLAINS

The Constitution of the Association

This document is available to all members on the IACAC website and can be accessed at www.iacac.info. It sets out the procedures and practices by which the Association is managed and operated. The main text of the Constitution is arranged in nineteen sections, supported by seven Appendices. These are listed below.

This is an important document. It seeks to encourage the fellowship and friendship of the common ministry of Civil Aviation Chaplaincy, while at the same time allowing for different practices and procedures with which members are familiar in their own countries and cultures. Its purpose is to ensure the fair and just management of the Association mindful of the expectations of all members.

Voting rights to apply only to those who are active members of the Association

3 Power to co-operate with other organisations in furtherance of the Objects and to exchange information and advice with them;

- 6.7 Members will lose their voting rights if there are outstanding subscriptions (dues) at the time the vote is to be taken.

Application for Membership

- 6.8 Application for membership shall be submitted on the form provided for the purpose, accompanied by an Affiliation Fee which shall include the Annual Subscription (dues) as laid down by the Executive Board, together with the appropriate evidence of authorisation (see Clause 6.9) and sent to the Treasurer. A sample membership form is included in Appendix 1. The information requested and affiliation details may vary, as circumstances require. Application for membership and payment of the affiliation fee can be made through the IACAC website; www.iacac.info

- 6.9 All applications for membership shall be supported by evidence of appointment by a competent authority. Normally, the Church Leader of the person's denomination shall give accreditation formally in writing. However, at the discretion of the Executive Board, accreditation may be given by the Chairperson of the Chaplaincy Management Body, or by the Senior Chaplain in post at the time of the appointment. The applicant must clarify the necessary process before the application is submitted.
- 6.10 Applications for membership shall be confirmed at the Annual Business Meeting by formal election by a majority vote of Active Members.

- 6.11 An Annual Subscription (dues) shall be levied. The subscription (dues) year shall accord with the financial year and run from 1st January to 31st December. The subscription (dues) shall cover administration costs of the Association, production of the Newsletter, the maintaining of an up-to-date Directory on the website, and a contribution towards the Subsidy Fund (see Clause 12.7).
- 6.12 The introduction of a formally levied Annual Subscription (dues) from all members (rather than, prior to 1999, only those who attended the Annual Conference) is an attempt to encourage a more active and representative membership. Those who were Members prior to 1999 but who rarely attend Conference will remain members even if their subscription (dues) remains unpaid. However, it is hoped that in seeking to fulfil the Objects of the Association (Section 4 above) they will fulfil their responsibilities to their fellow members as well as those members who may seek to benefit from the Subsidy Fund.
- 6.13 The level of subscription (dues) shall be set at the Annual Business Meeting on the advice of the Executive Board.
- 6.14 Notice of renewal of subscription (dues) shall be sent by the Treasurer. The subscription (dues) shall be indicated separately from other costs related to the Annual Conference.
- 6.15 Subscriptions (dues) may be paid when requested or at the Annual Conference of the relevant year. Members not attending the Annual Conference should pay their subscription prior to the Meeting.

- 6.17 Membership shall be deemed to have ceased when:
- 1 the person resigns from the Association;

- 6.19 A member shall be elected as the Media Officer. The post holder shall be one of the Association's Honorary Officers. The person appointed does not have to be an Active Member, however, they will normally have held that position and should have easy access to fax, e-mail and Internet facilities. The post holder shall work in close co-operation with the Vice-president, the Secretary and the Treasurer.
- 6.20 The Directory shall be available to all members on the website. It shall be updated as necessary by the Media Officer.
- 6.21 The ongoing cost of maintaining and updating the website shall be an element of the Affiliation Fee in accordance with Clauses 5.1.1 and 6.5 and shall also be an element of the Annual Subscription (dues). The Directory maintained on the Internet shall be continuously updated.

7 Honorary Officers

- 7.1 At the Annual Business Meeting of the Association, as required by Section 9 of this Constitution, members shall elect from amongst themselves a President, Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer and Media Officer, who shall hold office from the conclusion of the Conference.
- 7.2 The presence on the Board of two Host Chaplains will require each to serve for two and a half years. They will not be elected, but appointed by their Chaplaincy in relation to the Conferences, current and forthcoming. This will allow for a wider sharing of expertise, a 'cycling' of Board members, and encourage more members to participate in the work of the Association.
- 7.3
- 1 The Host Chaplain 1 (current Conference) will serve until the end of the February /March Board meeting in the following year in which their Conference took place.
 - 2 The Host Chaplain 2 (forthcoming Conference) will serve from the close of the conference at which the formal invitation is accepted until the end of the February /March Board meeting in the following year in which their Conference took place.
 - 3 In the event of a Conference invitation not being received, or being withdrawn, the other Board members shall decide on Host Chaplain appointments taking account of the best interests of the Association.
- 7.4 Honorary Officers shall normally hold office for a period of two years at which time further nomination and election will be necessary except the term of office for the Secretary and Treasurer which shall be 3 years to ensure continuity on the Board. In the event of there being no Annual Conference in any one year the period of office shall be extended to the next Conference.

8 The Executive Board

- 8.1 The Association shall be managed by an Executive Board. The Board shall ensure that the activities of the Association work in furtherance of the Objects and shall maintain the efficient operation of the Association. This shall include the maintaining of an Archive, the Archivist to be appointed by the Board.

8.2 The Board shall comprise:

President

Vice-President

Secretary

Treasurer

Media Officer

Host Chaplain 1 (current Conference) see Clause 8.3 below

Host Chaplain 2 (forthcoming Conference) see Clause 8.3 below

8.3 All persons, other than the Host Chaplains, to be elected in accordance with procedures detailed in Section 9 below.

9 Nominations and Election of Honorary Officers

9.1 The election of officers shall take place during the Annual Business meeting at the Conference

9.2 Nominations shall be from Active Members only and shall be received at the beginning of the Annual Business Meeting in the year prior to the elections

9.3

1. In the event of there being no nominations for a position, or if former nominees have withdrawn leaving no nominations for that position, nominations shall be received from the floor in an election year. In such a situation the need for nominations shall be notified to members as early as possible in the Conference program, and nominations shall close at the end of the first business session, or when deemed by the President to be appropriate.
2. In the event of it being necessary for nominations to office to be made during the conduct of the conference if more than one nomination is proposed then if practicable a period of not less than twenty four hours should pass between the time that any nomination is made and the casting of the ballots.

9.4 Voting shall be by Active and Honorary Members only in accordance with Clauses 6.3 to 6.7 above;

9.5 Nomination and election for each vacant honorary position shall be dealt with separately, and in the following order:

President

Vice-president

Secretary

Treasurer

Media Officer

9.6 In the event of an Officer dying or having to resign during their first year of office the Board may hold an election at the following Annual Business Meeting. This election shall be held in accordance with the requirements of this Constitution.

9.7 A Returning Officer shall be appointed who shall not be an Active Member of the Association, unless no other person is available. The Returning Officer shall be assisted by another person who may be an Active Member of the Association but not a candidate for election.

9.8 The following procedure shall apply for each vacant position according to the order stated in clause 9.5 above:

- 1 The Chair of the Annual Business Meeting shall read the list of those nominated, and the proposer and seconder, for each position in turn.
- 2 The Chair shall ask the nominees if they still wish to stand for election
- 3 The Chair shall invite each candidate to make a statement relevant to his or her election.
- 4 Ballot papers will then be distributed by the Returning Officer. Each Member voting shall write a number on the ballot paper beside the names of the candidates indicating the voter's order of preference.

- 5 The successful candidate will be the person receiving the overall majority of votes, which must exceed the total of votes cast for other candidates.
 - 6 In the event of the first count being inconclusive the candidate with the least number of votes is excluded from the second count, votes cast for them being distributed according to the indicated preferences of the voters. The same principle of overall majority will apply as before.
 - 7 The process continues until a candidate achieves a clear majority.
 - 8 Successful candidates assume their role from the close of the Conference at which they were elected.
- 9.9 Results of any necessary elections will be announced by one or other of the Returning Officers. In the event of equal votes being cast for the majority candidates and at the discretion of the Executive Board tied candidates may make further brief statements in support of their candidature. The matter shall then be resolved by a show of hands of the Active Members present, a tied vote being resolved by the casting vote of the Chair.
